The Y-CONNECT™ Pendant Light

The Y-CONNECT™ is an amazing lighting fixture that works as an 'single' pendant all to its own and can be customized to work as a cohesive canopy that lights large areas in a uniform, creative way and that is unrivaled in its visual appeal. The Y-CONNECT™ takes on the challenge of lighting large spaces in a strikingly creative manner!

The Y-CONNECT™ takes on the ambitious task of lighting large, modern spaces and doing so creatively and uniformly! Some key features are as follows:

- The Y-CONNECT™ pendant comes in a range of sizes and offers the ability to create a canopy of lighting perfection by creating a connected lighting experience by connecting one to another!
- Creating a modern, stylish, fully functional lighting experience for spacious locations that need bright lighting is something the Y-CONNECT™ does all to well--in simplistic color options, the Y-CONNECT™ creates the perfect lighting experience without pulling away from the environment, but adding to it.
- The Y-CONNECT™ is limited only by your imagination and, as such, has been a great pendant to rely on by architects and interior designers looking to connect people to great lighting experiences!

"The Y-CONNECT™ is the premier choice for keeping an ever-busier world connected to each other through vibrant, well lit spaces."
